07 winter league plan 2 After Consultation

Further to the texts I sent out re winter league

The problem was that there were two sides in the men's division of six teams that had 2 women in their team and both sides were on the receiving end of large scores so I thought that maybe we could enter them into the mixed divisions where teams could negotiate 2 women and 4 men if the numbers are struggling. This would allow for a 3 match pool league then a final.

I ran with the majority decision plus a large consideration for the team who goes into div 1 mixed.

New winter leagues will be as follows
